

Week 5 Report

In this week,

1. I collected new books data from the Goodreads (<https://www.goodreads.com/>) Now, there are totally 37 books data in biography, including book's name, author, rating, the number of rating people and the publish year. These attributes meet my demands.
2. I added the parts of copyright and the button for loading more books.
3. I edited the web page and make sure it shows the information of the book. Like shown below:

In the next week, I will:

1. Use jQuery to achieve to display another 20 books while only display 20 books without click the “Load More...” button.
2. Add the link of each book that is the book detailed page on the Goodreads (<https://www.goodreads.com/>).
